

1975-76 EDITION JUST PUBLISHED!

ENCYCLOPEDIA OF ASSOCIATIONS

THE NINTH EDITION—completely revised, updated, and reset in a more legible type face—will be even more useful than previous editions . . .

Librarians consult the Encyclopedia of Associations first for sources of current, authoritative information, which associations are uniquely equipped to provide on thousands of subjects. Just published, the Ninth Edition includes some 20,000 changes plus 1,255 brand-new listings. Covered along with national nonprofit membership organizations are selected non-membership groups, foreign groups of interest in America, U.S. local and regional groups of national interest, and citizen action groups and governmental advisory bodies concerned with specific problems.

Volume 1, National Organizations of the United States. Over 12,600 of the 14,563 entries in the basic Volume 1 are full descriptions of active associations. (Others are listings for inactive or defunct groups, pseudo-organizations, etc.) Active organizations are arranged in 17 subject categories: trade, agriculture, scientific, educational, public affairs, etc.

Information given in each entry includes the group's name, address, chief executive, phone number, purpose and activities, membership, publications, convention schedule, and other details.

The 40,000-item alphabetical and keyword index—which now refers to entries by number—lists associations both by proper names and under the keywords that best identify their fields of activity.

Volume 2, Geographic and Executive Index. The Geographic Section lists in state and city order all the associations that are arranged in Volume 1 by subject. Included are addresses, phone numbers, and names of executives. The Executive Section lists by surname all the executives mentioned in Volume 1, followed by their titles, names of their organizations, complete addresses, and phone numbers. Each listing in both sections gives the number of the detailed organization entry in Volume 1.

Volume 3, New Associations and Projects. This quarterly supplement to Volume 1 is published during the period between the 9th and 10th editions in order to provide subscribers with details on the hundreds of new organizations constantly being formed to deal with new problems and concepts, or to try a new approach to old situations.

Reviewers have had high praise for previous editions of EA:

"Since its introduction in 1956, the Encyclopedia of Associations has earned its reputation as a cornerstone of any sound general reference collection . . . In a word, the Encyclopedia of Associations is a basic reference tool. All libraries should have it." (RQ)

"The only comprehensive source of detailed information on nonprofit American membership organizations of national scope." (Guide to Reference Books for School Media Centers)

"The largest directory of American associations currently available for library purchase . . . It is accurate and reasonably current. Recommended." (The Book-list)

Art & Architecture ☐

Dictionary Catalog of the Art & Architecture Division of the Research Libraries of The New York Public Library

The Art and Architecture Division of The New York Public Library is one of the largest research collections in the fine and applied shelving over 100,000 volumes. The estimated 464,500 items in the Catalog cover painting, drawing, sculpture and the history and design aspects of architecture and the applied arts from the prehistoric and primitive to the latest art movements. The materials in the decorative and minor arts stand out as particular strengths. The Catalog provides access not only to books located in the Division itself, but also to the other resources of the Research Libraries collections: articles indexed from periodical and society publications from the Social Research and Humanities Division; Cyrillic, Oriental and Hebraic material in the language divisions; source materials in the Rare Book Room; historically important architectural drawings in the Spencer Collection; and books from the local library collections when these include chapters on local monuments and styles.

American Indian Studies ☐

Catalog to Manuscripts at the National Ethnological Archives Smithsonian Institution, National Museum History

This catalog is the major finding aid for a series of manuscripts which constitute a unique collection of documents relating to American Indians. Gathered by the former Bureau of American Ethnology, the manuscripts pertain primarily to the languages, ethnology and history of North American Indians and include vocabularies, texts, grammatical notes and comparative linguistic data; originals and copies of correspondence; ethnological and archaeological field notes; transcripts of oral history and music; ethnological extracts from published and archival historical sources; drawings; and manuscript maps and maps with manuscript annotations. Some of the manuscripts are dated as early as 1848 and coverage extends to the present time. Approximately 40,000 individual items are described under about 5,000 main entries. There is no comparable section.

the new Xerox 350 Microfilm Reader

simplicity

We designed the Model 350 with one objective in mind: simplified operation. Since even infrequent microfilm users will find it easy to use, this reader will save librarians hours of instruction time and will encourage greater use of microfilm resources.

To maximize user convenience all controls are located up front and keyed to the easy-to-follow operating instructions on the front of the unit. The 350 Reader accepts 35mm and 16mm microfilm (a microfiche adapter is also available), and can be ordered with manual or motorized drive. Both are priced substantially less than most comparable competitive models.

We'd like to send you a free brochure on the 350 Reader which explains in detail why it is truly a model of simplicity. Just write or call today.

National Faculty Directory '75

An Alphabetical List, with Addresses, of about 435,000 Members of Teaching Faculties at Junior Colleges, Colleges, and Universities in the United States and at Selected Canadian Institutions. Fifth Edition. Two Volumes. 2,327 pages. L.C. No. 76-114404. ISBN 0-8103-0652-2. $85.00/set.

The National Faculty Directory is the standard reference for identifying and locating members of teaching faculties at U.S. and selected Canadian institutions of higher education. NFD-1975 is a thoroughly updated work: over 110,000 changes have been made in existing listings and about 35,000 names have been added. Each entry gives name, department, institution, and complete mailing address.

REVIEWERS' COMMENTS ON PREVIOUS EDITIONS . . .

CHOICE: "Clearly, this compilation is one of the most important reference works now available to the higher education academic community . . . An essential acquisition for all academic libraries."

AMERICAN REFERENCE BOOKS ANNUAL: "The currency of information in the present edition is considerably better than are most mailing lists distributed by some publishers and special mailing houses."

HIGHER EDUCATION BOOK REVIEW: "The National Faculty Directory is a thorough and comprehensive volume and an invaluable source material for personnel in the academic community and otherwise. A 'must' reference aid in any administrative-academic office."

SCIENCE BOOKS: "This should prove to be a widely used reference in colleges, universities, public libraries, educational and professional organizations, etc. . . . Highly recommended."
